PHILADELPHIA, PA, UNITED STATES, October 2, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- National investment loss and securities attorneys KlaymanToskes issues an important notice to customers of financial advisors Austin Dutton who suffered investment losses. The firm has filed FINRA arbitration case 25-01846 seeking over $50,000 in damages after Dutton recommended United Development Fund III to an elderly investor. KlaymanToskes urges all customers of Austin Dutton who suffered investment losses to contact the firm immediately at 888-997-9956.

KlaymanToskes is currently representing many customers of barred financial advisor Austin Dutton who suffered losses at Newbridge Securities Corporation and other firms. The most recent FINRA arbitration claim (Case No. 25-01846) was filed against Newbridge Securities on behalf of an investor seeking to recover over $50,000 in damages after being unsuitably recommended United Development Fund III by financial advisor, Austin Dutton.

According to the claim filed by KlaymanToskes, in October of 2021, federal prosecutors charged four executives of United Development Funding (UDF), a real estate investment trust based in Grapevine, Texas with fraud.

Financial advisor Austin Dutton, through Newbridge Securities Corp., allegedly misrepresented the alternative investment as safe and low-risk investments. In reality, the United Development Fund was illiquid and incorporated significant risk.

Austin Dutton Jr. was permanently barred by FINRA on June 24, 2024, after multiple customer complaints related to the sale of unsuitable alternative investments. Dutton has 35 customer complaints and 4 regulatory events disclosed on his BrokerCheck report.

Customers of Austin Dutton who suffered investment losses at Newbridge Securities or any other brokerage firm are encouraged to contact attorney Steven D. Toskes, Esq. at (888) 997-9956 or by email at investigations@klaymantoskes.com to discuss potential recovery options.
