Featured Assets

Schneider Industries has been helping corporations manage surplus assets and liquidate inventory for 30 years. Companies like Emerson Electric, Kraft Foods, and others around the world depend on Schneider Industries to liquidate factory equipment, hold auctions for commercial industrial inventory, and turn commercial real estate properties into liquid assets.

Schneider Industries was founded in 1993 by Bruce Schneider with the goal to assist corporations in managing their surplus assets, including equipment and real estate. Schneider specializes in maximizing the value of corporations' surplus and idle equipment by creating individual strategic plans to reach end users thus maximizing value, all the while providing these services in a controlled, secure, and safe environment.

Over the years, Schneider Industries has grown to become one of the most recognized companies in its industry. Their personnel and work ethics combine experience, integrity, transparency, professionalism, creativity, and commitment. These features have helped to make Schneider the number one choice to manage surplus assets for over a thousand companies such as General Mills, Anheuser-Busch, Kraft Foods, Grupo Herdez, and Emerson Electric, to name a few.

Schneider Industries structures every asset management plan around each client's unique criteria. Please reach out to see what Schneider what can do for you!
