

Trusted Since 1976: Mike Diamond Plumbing, HVAC & Electrical Launches SoCal Deals

Trusted since 1976, Mike Diamond Plumbing, HVAC & Electrical brings exclusive limited-time offers to SoCal homeowners — fast, reliable service guaranteed

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, October 3, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mike Diamond Plumbing, HVAC & Electrical, widely known as The Smell Good Plumber™ — today announced a major expansion of its service area across Southern California. Effective immediately, the company will provide full plumbing, HVAC, and electrical services to homeowners and businesses in: Inglewood, Gardena, Costa Mesa, Pomona, Anaheim, Culver City, and North Hollywood.

Founded in 1976, Mike Diamond has built a reputation for reliable, professional emergency and routine service across Los Angeles and Orange County. The expansion brings the company's licensed, background-checked technicians, same-day response capability, and signature "Smell Good" customer care to seven new communities — backed by transparent pricing and a commitment to leaving each home cleaner than they found it. Introductory offers (limited time)

The Best of the Southland Since 1976: Mike Diamond Plumbing, HVAC & Electrical Grows to 7 New SoCal Neighborhoods

“We started with a wrench and a promise: do the job right and treat people with respect,” said Mike, CEO of Mike Diamond Plumbing, HVAC & Electrical. “Bringing our technicians and our customer-first standards to these neighborhoods means faster response times and better service for thousands more families. And these introductory offers are our way of saying welcome.”

Why this matters

The expansion reduces travel time and improves same-day availability in each new market. Every truck is stocked to complete most jobs on the first visit; technicians wear fresh uniforms and gloves, protect floors and leave homes spotless — the service standards that made the company’s “Smell Good Plumber” nickname a promise, not a punchline.

How to book
