

Skee-Ball announces Shuffleboard X, bringing home an arcade favorite with commercial quality

PULASKI, WI, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The team behind Skee-Ball® announced the launch of Shuffleboard X, a home-sized shuffleboard table designed to become a staple in any man cave or home game room. Shuffleboard X delivers a premium, durable gaming experience at an accessible price, making it a must have for home gaming enthusiasts.

“For decades, our team has been entrusted with manufacturing the iconic quality of Skee-Ball, and we’re bringing that same commitment to craftsmanship into the world of shuffleboard,” said Lance Treankler, Skee-Ball Team. “We recognized that high-quality shuffleboard was often too expensive or too difficult to install for the average consumer. Shuffleboard X changes that, offering a long, tournament-quality experience that is both affordable and incredibly easy to set up.”
