Founded and operated in Barkan, Eynavis Chocolate offers mobile workshops that bring the sweet art of chocolate creation directly to homes, workplaces, schools, and event venues across Israel. Each session is designed to be interactive, educational, and fun - teaching participants how to craft pralines, chocolate figures, and personalized treats from premium ingredients.

Chocolate brings people together - our workshops create moments of joy, connection, and creativity for every participant.”

“Chocolate brings people together,” says the Eynavis Chocolate founder. “Our workshops are all about connection - between people, flavours, and creativity. Whether it’s a family day, a couple’s experience, a corporate event, or a birthday celebration, we bring a unique personal touch that makes everyone feel like a chocolatier for a day.”

Eynavis Chocolate’s workshops are tailored for different experiences:

- Couples Workshops – A romantic hands-on activity that combines teamwork, laughter, and sweet creation.

- Team-Building Events – Corporate workshops promoting collaboration, communication, and fun in a delicious atmosphere.
- Family and Kids' Workshops – Engaging sessions that encourage creativity and bonding through chocolate play.
- Birthday and Private Events – Customized celebrations where every guest creates and enjoys their own chocolate masterpieces.

Each Eynavis experience includes all materials, professional guidance, and an emphasis on creativity and quality. The workshops are known for their warm, personal approach, led by skilled instructors who share their passion for chocolate making in a lively and inclusive setting.

Eynavis Chocolate continues to expand throughout Israel, offering flexible scheduling and customized packages for all event types. Their mission is simple: to spread happiness and connection - one chocolate at a time.
