The event offers NSA’s youth athletes an inspiring opportunity to share the field with world-class professionals and experience one of the premier moments in women’s soccer — walking out shoulder to shoulder with their heroes before a national audience.

“Moments like these show our athletes what’s possible when passion and hard work meet opportunity,” said Jason Gruner, Executive Director of Naples Soccer Academy. “Our mission has always been about removing barriers and giving every girl access to experiences that shape confidence, leadership, and dreams.”

Founded in Southwest Florida, Naples Soccer Academy provides elite supplemental training, mentorship, and development opportunities for female athletes from every club and background.
