

Heartfelt Media Group Releases First Album for Streaming and CD

Heartfelt Media Group has completed its first (compilation) album featuring a wide variety of genres. It is available on streaming and coming soon to CD.

WAYLAND, MI, UNITED STATES, October 6, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Heartfelt Media Group Volume 1 is a compilation album now available on Spotify and other major streaming platforms. From the traditional country "You Showed Me Love" to the high energy Christian dance/EDM song "Forgiving Eyes", there's bound to be something for just about everyone on this debut release. The streaming album contains 24 tracks while the upcoming CD release will also include a bonus track: a fun, evangelicalized version of the 1980s Juicy Fruit gum jingle called "Spirit Fruit", targeted at Christian youth groups. Other highlights include a new rendition of the song "Praise You Father" popularized by the Maranatha Singers, this time featuring sounds of a children's choir. More standout tracks include the album opener "Without You" and the retro-1960s nod to The Byrds, "Chosen Generation".

Heartfelt Media Group Volume 1

Heartfelt Media Group Volume 1 features "Heartfelt Digital Artistry" on many of the album tracks. According Dan Parks of Heartfelt Media Group, "The Heartfelt Digital Ensemble (referred to as Heartfelt Digital Artistry or HDA on some releases) is the human-designed and guided use of artificial intelligence, along with other means of production and sometimes natural elements, to create high-quality, natural sounding and/or appearing media. That media is primarily human-sourced."
