This partnership isn't about preparing youth for the future; it's about empowering them to build it”

Alan Smithson, Founder & CEO, Unlimited Awesome

The partnership combines Unlimited Awesome's Adaptive AI Learning Companion, over 175 world-class mentors, and a startup incubator model with YOUNGA's global community spanning 185+ countries, creating an unprecedented pathway for young changemakers to learn, lead, and launch real-world impact.

Future-Proof Curriculum – Combining YOUNGA's Changemaker program, aligned with the UN Sustainable Development Goals, and Unlimited Awesome's Six Castles of Success, students gain the skills—from perseverance and entrepreneurship to environmental sustainability—to thrive in an AI-driven economy.

Human + AI Learning Model – Personalized AI tutors paired with human coaches provide scalable, adaptive education that accelerates skill mastery while preserving human mentorship.

Global Inclusive Access – Through global scholarship programs, students from underserved regions gain the same opportunities as their peers worldwide.

“Education is the currency of the future. Partnering with Unlimited Awesome allows us to scale our next-gen upskilling programs with AI while bridging opportunity gaps so every young person can access the future skills and confidence to lead change.” Kelly Lovell, Founder & CEO, YOUNGA

“This partnership isn’t about preparing youth for the future; it’s about empowering them to build it. Together with YOUNGA, we’re giving the next generation the tools to solve humanity’s greatest challenges and create a world where innovation and impact go hand-in-hand.” Alan Smithson, Founder & CEO, Unlimited Awesome

Why It Matters - More than 1.2 billion young people are entering the workforce this decade, yet over half will lack the skills needed for jobs shaped by AI, automation, and climate change. By uniting AI-driven personalized education with a trusted global network of changemakers, Unlimited Awesome and YOUNGA are positioning youth not just as participants in the future but as its architects.
