

AutoGen Inc. Expands Portfolio Through New Distribution Partnership with LVL Technologies

HOLLISTON, MA, UNITED STATES, October 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- AutoGen, Inc. is proud to announce a new division, 2D Tubes by AutoGen, and a new distribution partnership with LVL Technologies GmbH & Co. KG, a leading German manufacturer of high-quality 2D barcoded tubes, racks, and automation-ready sample storage solutions.

This collaboration strengthens AutoGen's ability to support U.S. laboratories with end-to-end sample workflow solutions – from extraction to secure, scalable storage.

“Our mission has always been to help labs streamline workflows and protect sample integrity. By partnering with LVL Technologies, we now offer even greater value to our customers through robust and automation-compatible storage products,” says Michael Messier, CEO of AutoGen.

LVL's dedication to innovation and quality mirrors our own. We're excited to offer their SAFE® portfolio to our growing network of academic, clinical, and biopharma customers across the U.S.”

Michael Messier, CEO

LVL's SAFE® product line includes:

- Premium 2D barcoded tubes and racks
- Rack readers and single-tube scanners
- Automated capping/decapping systems
- Robotic integration components

Combined with AutoGen's trusted FlexSTAR+, XTRACT 16+®, and QuickGene platforms for nucleic acid extraction, labs can now benefit from a comprehensive, fully integrated sample management workflow – supported by one experienced, responsive team.

Ensure critical samples are secure and organized with SAFE® 2D SBS tubes and racks from 2D Tubes by AutoGen.

"LVL's dedication to innovation and quality mirrors our own," adds Messier. "We're excited to offer their SAFE® portfolio to our growing network of academic, clinical, and biopharma customers across the U.S."

This partnership also enables shorter lead times and local technical support for LVL products, backed by AutoGen's U.S.-based service and customer success teams.

Now Available in the U.S.
