ABOUT ONE OR EIGHT

ONE OR EIGHT is an eight-member Japanese boy group - MIZUKI, NEO, REIA, RYOTA, SOUMA, TAKERU, TSUBASA and YUGA - whose name is derived from the Japanese idiom "ippuku ka yoka" (one or eight, meaning "all or nothing"). With the tagline "BET ON YOURSELF", they embody a spirit of risk-taking and ambition, inviting fans to dream big and take bold chances alongside them.

They debuted on 16th August 2024, with "Don't Tell Nobody", produced by One Republic's Ryan Tedder (Taylor Swift, Adele, Jonas Brothers) and David Stewart (BTS), debuting at No. 1 on the Billboard Japan Heatseekers Songs chart. Their 2024 collaboration with Big Sean, "KAWASAKI \(with Big Sean\)", peaked at #5 on the U.S. iTunes Hip-Hop/Rap Song chart. In 2025, they were named one of Nikkei Entertainment!'s 100 New Leading Artists and won Upcoming Dance & Vocal Group at MTV VMAJ in 2025. In September they made history as the first Japanese boy group to walk the red carpet at the MTV Video Music Awards (VMA).
