Real Pro Auto Service, serving communities in Grand Rapids, Wyoming, and Saranac, has announced its continued community involvement through support of Saranac Youth Little League Baseball. The company's sponsorship helps local players access equipment, uniforms, and facilities needed for a successful season.

Community programs like Saranac Youth Baseball build teamwork, confidence, and lifelong skills.”

Investing in Local Youth and Community Spirit

The Saranac Youth Baseball League provides children and teens with the opportunity to develop teamwork, discipline, and sportsmanship through the game of baseball. Real Pro Auto's sponsorship is part of its ongoing mission to invest in programs that promote positive youth development and community engagement.

By supporting the league, the company reinforces its belief that small-town programs create big impacts—both on and off the field.

A Word from the Owner

“Community programs like Saranac Youth Baseball build teamwork, confidence, and lifelong skills,” said John Stewart, Owner of Real Pro Auto.

Commitment Beyond the Garage
While known for dependable automotive service, Real Pro Auto also places strong emphasis on giving back. From youth sports to charitable events, the company continues to show that supporting local families is as important as maintaining their vehicles.
