

CULT-FAVORITE NYC DUMPLING SHOP MIMI CHENG'S LAUNCHES FROZEN DUMPLINGS NATIONWIDE AT SELECT WHOLE FOODS MARKET STORES

New York City Dumpling Darlings Are Now Available Coast-to-Coast

NEW YORK, NY, UNITED STATES, October 7, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Mimi Cheng's, New York City's cult-favorite dumpling shop, just went nationwide — and it's bringing big, bold flavor with it. Beginning Fall 2025, Mimi Cheng's famous frozen dumplings are officially available at select Whole Foods Market stores coast-to-coast, delivering mom Mimi's beloved family recipes straight from their East Village restaurant to kitchens across America.

After a blockbuster debut at select Whole Foods Market stores across NYC in late 2024 and expansion across the Northeast earlier this year, Mimi Cheng's is now filling freezer aisles nationwide with three of its most-loved varieties: Chicken, Bok Choy & Zucchini, Heritage Berkshire Pork & Chive, and Chicken Parm.

Founded in 2014 by sisters Hannah and Marian Cheng, Mimi Cheng's began with a mission to recreate their mom Mimi's dumplings using the freshest, highest-quality ingredients possible. The brand quickly became a New York institution, celebrated for its artisanal approach, playful and crave-worthy flavors, and cult following. From cacio e pepe and French onion soup dumplings to Pizza Loves Emily burger-inspired dumplings and Peter Luger steak sandwich bao, Mimi Cheng's has turned dumplings into a canvas for some of NYC's most exciting collaborations.

"Growing up, our mom Mimi would stock our freezer with her homemade dumplings before traveling, and she'd even bring coolers of them to us in college and during our first NYC jobs," says co-founder Marian Cheng. "Seeing those same dumplings in freezer aisles nationwide feels like a full-circle moment, and such a special way to share our family tradition."

Co-founder Hannah Cheng adds: "We've always believed great dumplings start with great ingredients, no shortcuts. Ours are made with heritage Berkshire pork, antibiotic-free chicken, packed with vegetables and all wrapped in a delicately crafted wrapper — because flavor matters. Now, anyone can enjoy that same restaurant-quality experience at home."
