of leadership in gift and estate planning, trusteeship and trust administration, estate settlement, philanthropy, and family governance. She brings decades of experience at the intersection of law, wealth management, and philanthropy. Most recently, she served as Managing Director and Global Head of Fiduciary at BNY Mellon, where she led a team of trust specialists serving as the trusted advisor to family offices and the families they serve, as well as charitable trusts and foundations. She previously held senior leadership positions with Bank of America Private Bank and Harvard Management Company, and earlier in her career, she practiced domestic and international trusts and estates law for more than 15 years with Day Pitney and Goodwin Procter.

"We are thrilled to partner with McLane Middleton on this important recruitment, and we look forward to following Nancy's success with the firm," said George Wilbanks, Managing Partner at Wilbanks Partners, llc. He continued, "Wilbanks Partners has a long track record of successful recruiting partnerships in the wealth management business, including C-suite work for RIAs, multi- and single-family offices, and their service providers like trust companies and the wealth management distribution efforts of asset managers."
