

Flagstaff Mountain RV to Open This Winter in Northern Arizona

New RV Destination Invites Early Travelers to Join Exclusive Founding Guest Program

FLAGSTAFF, AZ, UNITED STATES, October 24, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Flagstaff Mountain RV, a new locally owned RV park designed for today's travelers, is set to open its doors in Northern Arizona this winter just minutes from downtown Flagstaff and iconic destinations like the Grand Canyon. Nestled among the pines, the park offers modern RVers the perfect blend of comfort, community, and connection to nature.

"We created Flagstaff Mountain RV because we saw a need for something unique, meaningful, and personal – an RV park that felt less like a parking lot and more like a place to pause, breathe, and connect," said Arron Stump, Owner, Flagstaff Mountain RV. "As a family who loves the outdoors and calls Northern Arizona home, we wanted to share the quiet beauty of this place with others, whether they're passing through or staying for a while. For us, it's about creating space for people to feel welcome, to explore, to connect, and to make lasting memories."

Opening Winter 2025, guests can expect:

- Full hookups and reliable high-speed Wi-Fi
- Modern amenities, including clean showers, laundry, and a stocked general store with local beer and wine
- Pet-friendly spaces designed for both families and solo vanlifers
- Direct access to Flagstaff's trails, dining, and attractions
- A peaceful, pine-shaded atmosphere just minutes from downtown

Flagstaff Mountain RV welcomes adventurous travelers to join its journey from day one, inviting them to be First to Know. First to Stay. As part of the Founding Guest Program, early visitors will unlock special benefits including complimentary nights, priority reservations, and a free camping kit.

Locally owned and rooted in the community, Flagstaff Mountain RV combines modern comfort with the beauty of Northern Arizona's outdoors. Learn more and sign up at flagstaffmountainrv.com to be first to know, and first to stay.
