About Forever27

Forever27 is a boutique medical aesthetics studio founded by Angela María Cifuentes, a Colombian-Canadian Medical Esthetician whose passion for holistic beauty bridges the connection between inner wellness and outer radiance.

Born and raised in Colombia and proudly calling Canada home for over 20 years, Angela brings a unique blend of Latin warmth and Canadian professionalism to every treatment. Her philosophy is rooted in the belief that beauty is not merely skin deep—it is a reflection of harmony between the body, mind, and spirit.

With years of experience and mentorship from some of the industry's most respected professionals, Angela has cultivated a practice centered on personalized care, premium-quality products, and a serene, private environment where each client feels seen, heard, and cared for.

Fluent in both English and Spanish, she connects authentically with clients from all backgrounds, guiding them on a journey toward confidence and self-love through tailored skincare, nutrition, and wellness practices.

At Forever27, every visit is more than a treatment—it's an invitation to rediscover yourself, to embrace the glow that comes from living well, and to celebrate beauty as a lifestyle.
