Black Mountain Limo, a premier private transportation company based in Breckenridge, Colorado, is proud to provide transportation services for the Stifel Copper Cup competition presented by American Airlines at Copper Mountain Resort. The event brings together elite skiers, snowboarders, and fans for one of the early highlights of the Colorado winter sports season.

Worth Parker, CEO of Black Mountain Limo

The Stifel Copper Cup is part of the U.S. Ski & Snowboard competition calendar, drawing national and international athletes for training and competition at Copper Mountain's world-class facilities. As visitors and competitors arrive in Summit County, dependable ground transportation is essential for navigating winter weather and high-altitude travel safely.

A Word from the Owner

“The Stifel Copper Cup is one of Colorado's key early-season events, and we're proud to help athletes and visitors get to Copper Mountain safely and on time,” said Worth Parker, CEO of Black Mountain Limo.

Supporting Colorado's Winter Sports Community

For years, Black Mountain Limo has served as a trusted transportation partner for mountain resort events, including ski races, corporate gatherings, and seasonal tourism activities. With 24/7 service and a locally based fleet, the company ensures that guests, teams, and event staff reach their destinations efficiently and safely—even during peak travel conditions.

The company's professional chauffeurs are experienced in navigating Summit County's winter roads, offering peace of mind to passengers traveling from Denver International Airport or neighboring ski towns. Their vehicles are equipped for snowy conditions, ensuring comfortable, reliable service throughout the winter sports season.
