Her latest creation showcases Ballora, the hauntingly elegant character from Five Nights at Freddy's, brought to life in a stunning, choreographed performance soundtracked by "Hush," the new single from U.S.-based brother-sister duo Dorsten. The video merges music and motion in Sachiko's signature cinematic style. "I heard this track and was absolutely vibing with it," says Princess Sachiko. "It fits my character from Five Nights At Freddy's so well—I just had to include it."

Beyond the screen, Princess Sachiko's influence extends to major media and red-carpet events, including appearances and promotional collaborations for Disney's "Wish", Disney / Marvel Studios' "The Marvels", and "Deadpool & Wolverine." Her unique blend of style and authenticity has also landed her national television interviews across South Africa, where she continues to inspire young creators through her message of empowerment, imagination, and innovation.

Adding to her impressive portfolio, Princess Sachiko serves as a Global Ambassador for the revolutionary UK-based skincare brand, Skin+CELL, representing a new era of inclusivity and innovation in beauty marketing. She has also partnered with multiple international brands through online campaigns and short-form digital advertising, merging entertainment with purpose-driven content that resonates worldwide.

"I want to show people that creativity has no borders," says Princess Sachiko. "Whether it's through cosplay, fashion, or storytelling, art connects us. My goal is to inspire others to dream big and embrace their individuality."
