

SAE Institute Miami Launches New Associate of Applied Science in Audio Program with Community Celebration

MIAMI, FL, UNITED STATES, October 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- SAE Institute USA is proud to announce the launch of its new Associate of Applied Science in Audio program at its Miami campus, expanding academic opportunities for students pursuing careers in audio production and engineering.

To mark this milestone, SAE Institute of Technology Miami will host a community celebration on Friday, October 17, from 6–9 p.m. at its North Miami Beach campus.

The event will feature live music, studio demonstrations, prizes, and giveaways, as well as opportunities to connect with students, alumni, industry professionals, and local community members.

Guests will also get a firsthand look at SAE Institute Miami's studios and classrooms, and learn more about the expanded academic portfolio.

"Our goal has always been to prepare students for success in the professional audio world," says Jerry Rivera, SAE Institute Miami Campus Director. "With the launch of the new AAS program, we're offering a more robust path for students to gain the skills, experience, and technical knowledge needed to get started in the industry."

The Associate of Applied Science in Audio program is designed to provide hands-on training in audio production and engineering, preparing students to enter a variety of roles across the audio, media, and entertainment industries.

The event is free and open to the public. To RSVP, please visit bit.ly/SAE-MIA-Event.
