

Jasmine Gordon's 'Married and Lonely' Offers Spiritual Guidance and Strength for Women of Faith

This transformative study guide inspires hope and renewal at the Maple Staple booth during the Frankfurt Book Fair 2025.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 8, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Readers and book enthusiasts attending this year's Frankfurt Book Fair are in for an inspiring encounter as Evangelist Jasmine Gordon's transformative study guide, "Married and Lonely: Along the Journey of Kingdom Women," takes center stage at The Maple Staple booth (Hall 5.1 D86) from October 15-19, 2025.

Married and Lonely: Along the Journey of Kingdom Women

Gordon's "Married and Lonely: Along the Journey of Kingdom Women" is a deeply reflective and empowering guide crafted for women navigating the emotional and spiritual complexities of marriage and faith. With heartfelt wisdom and practical insight, the book provides a roadmap for women—both single and married—to identify their purpose, strengthen their relationships, and deepen their connection with God.

Beyond its focus on marital life, the guide's timeless principles also speak to men, the divorced, and the widowed, offering a universal message of restoration and hope.

Evangelist Jasmine Gordon, an internationally recognized author, gospel minister, and television host, continues to impact lives through her faith-driven mission. Her published works include "Fear Not! There is Still Power in Prayer," "38 Reasons for Unanswered Prayers," and "Daily Restorational: A 52 Weeks of Devotion". As a chaplain, she provides comfort to the grieving and spiritual guidance to those in life's most vulnerable moments.

Her book, "Married and Lonely: Along the Journey of Kingdom Women," stands as both a companion and a call to action for readers who desire lasting change in their life, marriage, and ministry.

Staying true to its vision of amplifying diverse literary voices worldwide, The Maple Staple brings together a remarkable lineup of stories to the Frankfurt Book Fair 2025. Featuring over 100 titles across a wide range of genres, each work embodies creativity, purpose, and the shared human journey. The full collection is available for exploration online at
