

Odella Glenn's 'Searching for God' Inspires Spiritual Renewal at Frankfurt Book Fair 2025

The inspiring spiritual memoir guides readers on a transformative journey to rediscover faith and deepen their relationship with God.

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- At this year's Frankfurt Book Fair, the quiet strength of faith finds its voice through Odella Glenn's deeply personal book, "Searching for God: After Drifting Away". Presented by The Maple Staple at Hall 5.1 D86, the title joins a diverse lineup of over 100 literary works featured from October 15–19, 2025.

In "Searching for God: After Drifting Away," Odella Glenn invites readers into her awakening—from years of routine faith to a transformative encounter with the living God. What began as a season of distance turned into a testimony of rediscovery, as she realized that belief without intimacy is only the beginning of knowing Him.

Her story resonates with believers who may have found themselves spiritually drifting—those who attend, serve, and pray, yet feel an ache for something deeper. Through honest storytelling and heartfelt insight, Glenn offers both comfort and challenge: that every detour can lead home when the heart seeks God sincerely.

Odella Glenn writes from lived experience, offering an honest and relatable perspective on faith, purpose, and spiritual renewal. Her journey from outward belief to inward transformation reflects a deep understanding of what it means to truly encounter God. Through her testimony, she invites readers to look inward, reflect deeply, and embrace the lasting joy of a restored relationship with Him.

Visitors to The Maple Staple's booth can explore Glenn's work alongside titles spanning fiction,
