A Platform Built for the Writer

"We believe human creativity is paramount, and technology should serve as a muse, not a replacement. PoetryBird is more than just a writing tool—it's a digital atelier for poets. We want to make it simple for anyone to share their voice, create beautiful poetry collections, and find the perfect visual accompaniment for their art," says Tsunemi Takahashi, CEO of Foruterra LLC.

The platform is operated by Foruterra LLC.
