

Hushan Autoparts Launches CAPA-Certified Rearview Cameras with AI Active Alignment Technology

Taiwan's leading automotive parts manufacturer brings AI-driven optical precision to the U.S. aftermarket and showcases innovations at AAPEX 2025, Las Vegas.

TAIPEI, TAIWAN, TAIWAN, October 9, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Hushan Autoparts Inc. (7736.TW), a global leader in automotive aftermarket components, proudly announces its achievement as the first and only manufacturer to offer CAPA-certified rearview cameras for the U.S. aftermarket. The Certified Automotive Parts Association (CAPA) sets the highest standards in replacement-part quality, reliability, and safety—widely recognized across the American insurance and collision-repair industries.

Hushan Leads with AI-Powered “Active Alignment” Optical Manufacturing Line

This advanced AI-based system—typically used in semiconductor cleanrooms—automatically aligns the lens and image sensor with sub-micron precision, minimizing optical-axis deviation and ensuring consistent
