

Little Things by Linda Harper Officially Hits Amazon Bestseller List

OZARK, MO, UNITED STATES, October 9, 2025

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Linda Harper's debut novel Little Things has officially climbed to the top of the charts, becoming a bestseller on Amazon. The heartfelt story of redemption, reconciliation, and family ties has captivated readers worldwide, garnering widespread acclaim for its emotional depth and relatable characters.

Set in small-town Oxford, Mississippi, Little Things follows Tish Adams, a veterinarian struggling to reconcile her past, particularly the troubled relationship with her birth mother, Angel. As Tish confronts her unresolved grief, Angel, dying from cancer, is driven by a desire to reconnect with her estranged daughter. The novel explores the intricacies of forgiveness, the healing power of family, and the emotional price of reconciliation.

Harper, a fresh voice in contemporary literature, has woven a story that reflects the beauty in life's simpler moments. Her background in Southern literature and her own experiences in Mississippi shine through in this poignant tale, which has resonated deeply with readers.

"This book is incredibly personal to me, and seeing it connect with so many people is truly an honor."
