Prime 1 Studio is pleased to announce the opening of pre-orders for Cygnus Hyoga from the Premium Masterline Saint Seiya series, joining Ikki, Shiryu, Shun, and Seiya.

This 1/4 scale statue captures Hyoga performing the graceful dance that accompanies his signature technique, the "Diamond Dust." The sculpt portrays him spreading both arms at sharp angles, raising his right leg parallel to the ground, and maintaining perfect balance — a composition reminiscent of a cross, designed to blend the dynamic rhythm of animation with realistic human anatomy.

The Final Bronze Cloth is finished in a subtle bluish tone, emphasizing the detailed sculpt and paintwork. Two portraits are included: one showing Hyoga's determined expression, and another with a bandaged left eye. His hair, skin texture, and facial features have been carefully recreated to match his appearance in the series.

Behind Hyoga, a swan representing his guardian constellation rises from the base. Made from clear parts and accented with pale blue paint, it features an internal LED light that produces a cool glow. The base, decorated with the Bronze Cloth Pandora Box relief, maintains design consistency across the Saint Seiya Premium Masterline lineup.

The Bonus Version includes an additional portrait inspired by the original manga, sculpted in the expressive style of Masami Kurumada's artwork.
