

Canadian Musician Dave Sereny Unveils 'Brighter Days' for World Mental Health Day

Brighter Days - a Global Anthem of Hope and Positivity released today on all streaming platforms worldwide

TORONTO, ONTARIO, CANADA, October 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Acclaimed Canadian musician Dave Sereny, also known as King Dave, is set to inspire listeners worldwide with his latest single, "Brighter Days," releasing October 10th, 2025. The uplifting new track arrives at a crucial time, coinciding with World Mental Health Day and the global celebration of October as the Month of Positivity.

"Brighter Days" is a heartfelt anthem that offers hope, encouragement, and unity to people everywhere. With its soulful melodies and empowering lyrics, the song invites listeners to look forward with optimism, reminding everyone that even in challenging times, brighter days are ahead.

I wanted to write something that speaks directly to the heart, giving people a sense of hope and reminding them they're not alone."

Dave Sereny shares, "Get ready to feel the sunshine with 'Brighter Days' — the happiest music on Earth. This uplifting anthem is a soulful call for unity, hope, and love, reminding us all that we can do better together. Let the joy-filled groove lift your spirit and brighten your day."

Known for his emotive songwriting and genre-blending artistry, Sereny was inspired to create "Brighter Days" as a message of support for those struggling with uncertainty, anxiety, or sadness. "Music has the power to heal and unite," Sereny adds. "

The release date, October 10th, holds special significance as World Mental Health Day, a global initiative dedicated to raising awareness and promoting mental well-being. By launching "Brighter Days" on this day, Sereny aims to amplify the importance of positivity, empathy, and support for mental health. October's designation as the Month of Positivity further underscores the song's mission to uplift spirits and foster connection.
