A GLOBAL EDUCATION ROOTED IN EXCELLENCE

Part of the Nord Anglia Education global family of schools, BISW offers a uniquely international learning experience through the International Baccalaureate (IB) and IGCSE programmes. The school's curriculum combines academic rigor with creativity and personal growth, preparing students to succeed at leading universities around the world.

Principal Oona Carlin said, "We're proud to be recognized among the top private high schools in Washington, D.C. This achievement reflects our teachers' dedication, our students' curiosity, and strength of our diverse community. At BISW, we believe every child has unlimited potential and we work each day to ensure they are prepared for success wherever their journey takes them."

STUDENTS THRIVE AND ACHIEVE GLOBALLY

BISW's diverse student body represents more than 70 nationalities, creating a dynamic learning environment where international perspectives are celebrated. One BISW graduate shared on Niche, "I joined the school in my final three years of high school and had the best years of my life. The IB programme was challenging, but the teachers were great in preparing us. I accepted an offer from a top Canadian university and also received an Ivy League admission. My friends
