

Benmak Virtual Assistants Launches Global Affiliate Program Empowering Professionals to Earn Recurring Income

A timely opportunity to earn sustainable, recurring income by referring clients to Benmak Virtual Assistants' wide range of professional digital services.

NAIROBI, KENYA, October 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Benmak Virtual Assistants, a fast-growing global provider of virtual business support and digital services, has officially launched their Affiliate Program.

In the spirit of job creation, this opportunity offers professionals, creators, and entrepreneurs around the world an opportunity to earn passive income by referring their network to the company's services. It defeats geographical limitations, giving a chance to everyone pursuing growth and financial stability.

Affiliates can track their referrals and earnings through a structured, transparent, and ethically run system. The program is anchored on collaboration, fairness, and integrity, values deeply rooted in the company's culture.

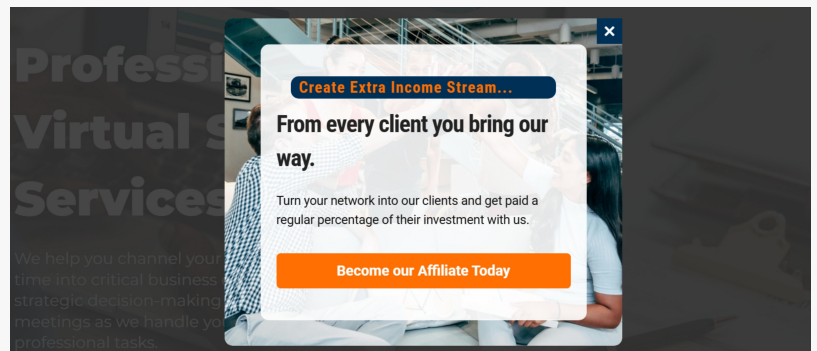

This strategic initiative marks a new chapter in Benmak Virtual Assistants' mission, empowering ambitious professionals to convert their network into a source of recurring income.

The move also signals the company's expansion of its footprint in providing reliable, high-quality online support solutions to businesses globally.

Turning Connections into Income

Under the Benmak Affiliate Program, approved affiliates earn a 10% commission on their referrals' payment for either one-off projects or ongoing retainer contracts with the company.

For long-term clients, that means 10% of every monthly payment for as long as they remain clients.

For one-off services such as book editing & publishing, press releases, and book reviews, affiliates will receive a similar percentage of the project's rates.

If a one-off project evolves into a long-term contract, affiliates seamlessly transition to earning recurring commissions on all subsequent payments, creating sustained passive income opportunities.
