

Oceanic Counseling Group Recognizes World Mental Health Day 2025: 'Every Mind Matters'

Oceanic Counseling Group raises awareness and supports global efforts for accessible, compassionate mental health care on World Mental Health Day.

WEST COLUMBIA, SC, UNITED STATES,
October 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Oceanic Counseling Group, one of South Carolina's largest and fastest-growing mental health practices, joins millions around the world today in recognizing World Mental Health Day 2025.

The overall objective of World Mental Health Day is to raise awareness of mental health issues around the world and to mobilize efforts in support of mental health. This day serves as an important reminder that mental well-being is essential for everyone, everywhere—and that collaboration between individuals, communities, and professionals is key to improving access to care.

"World Mental Health Day is about coming together to ensure that mental health care is not only available but encouraged," said David Haddock, CEO at Oceanic Counseling Group.

The day provides an opportunity for organizations and mental health professionals to share their work, their progress, and their vision for a future where care is accessible to all. Oceanic Counseling Group continues to expand its reach throughout South Carolina through both in-person and telehealth services, ensuring that individuals in rural and urban communities alike can connect with licensed clinicians.

Therapy is available for:

- Anxiety, depression, and trauma recovery
- Grief and loss
- Relationship and marriage counseling
- Child and adolescent support
- Veterans, first responders, and caregivers
- Addiction and recovery

-and more

“Our mission is to make quality mental health care a reality for everyone,” Haddock added.
