Carrying the Rogers Family Gospel Legacy Forward, Tallie Rogers Steps Into Her Season of Purpose with a Spirit-Filled Hit, "God Don't Play About Me"

ATLANTA, GA, UNITED STATES, October 10, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gospel music is receiving a powerful new anthem with the release of "God Don't Play About Me," the highly anticipated single from rising gospel powerhouse Tallie Rogers, now available on all streaming platforms.

I want everyone who hears this song to feel empowered. No matter where you are in life — in the church, in the streets, or in the struggle — know this: God doesn't play about you either.”

Written and produced by Grammy Award-winning music publisher Tony Mercedes and acclaimed producer Rick Stewart, this bold and soul-stirring track delivers a timeless message of faith, divine protection, and unshakable belief in God's promises.

“Tallie's voice carries power that stops you cold,” says

Mercedes. “This isn't just another gospel record — it's a testimony set to melody. Her delivery hits people in the church, in the streets, and everywhere in between.”

The single also features the incomparable Debra Killings, the legendary background vocalist behind TLC's chart-topping classics, whose signature harmonies bring added depth, warmth, and familiarity to the record.

A LEGACY ROOTED IN GOSPEL, A VOICE ALL HER OWN

Born into a family steeped in gospel tradition, Tallie Rogers is the daughter of the late Bishop TJ Rogers and Tallie Ann Rogers. She began her musical journey as part of The Rogers Sisters, performing alongside her brother, gospel star Tim Rogers, and their siblings — building a foundation of ministry, music, and purpose.

Her powerful stage presence later took her around the world as a touring vocalist with Pastor John P. Kee and New Life, where her soulful tone and anointed energy captivated audiences across generations. Now, Tallie Rogers steps into her solo era — strong, seasoned, and ready to carry her message of hope and faith to the world.

MENTORED BY A LEGEND, WALKING IN PURPOSE

Under the mentorship of gospel icon Vickie Winans, Tallie continues to evolve as both an artist and minister. “Vickie’s belief in me has been priceless,” Tallie shares. “She constantly reminds me to stand bold in my calling. This song is my testimony — a reminder that God fights for us, covers us, and never fails.”

With new management, a revitalized vision, and a heart devoted to ministry, Tallie Rogers is entering a new chapter — one where her faith meets her purpose head-on.
