eco-conscious esports organization, and Von Dutch, the cultural shaker that redefined Y2K streetwear, have officially launched the Worlds Collection, the next chapter of their talked-about “League is Dead” collaboration.

The League of Legends World Championship is the most prestigious event in esports. Each fall, the best teams from regional leagues across North America, Europe, Asia, and beyond compete in a multi-week tournament watched by tens of millions of fans worldwide. Worlds has become a global cultural phenomenon, combining elite gameplay, live entertainment, and record-breaking viewership that rivals traditional sports championships.

The FlyQuest x Von Dutch Worlds 2025 Collection is now available for purchase and serves as the official FlyQuest team uniform at the 2025 League of Legends World Championship, giving fans a rare chance to own gear that blends fashion credibility with competitive edge. The lineup includes:

The Worlds 2025 Trucker Hat - the Von Dutch staple with a FlyQuest flair

2025 Full Scale Jersey - the collection centerpiece, accompanied by the official uniform pants and jacket.

Worlds 2025 Track Pants - Sleek, comfortable, and made to move—perfect for game days or the streets.

Worlds 2025 Track Jacket - A statement layer that completes the look, combining performance with personality.

Worlds 2025 Keychain - A limited-edition collectible celebrating FlyQuest's journey to the World Championship stage.

The Rattlesnake Tee - a highly wearable item to compliment the other pieces

“Our first drop proved that gaming culture and style can collide in unexpected ways—selling out in less than 24 hours,” said Paul Cho, VP of Partnerships at FlyQuest. “The Worlds Collection takes that idea to the next level: gear that’s collectible, wearable, and made for the moment.”

Available today, the limited-edition Worlds Collection can be purchased at flyquest.gg/collections. With viewership climbing into the millions each season, these pieces let fans celebrate the game and its culture—both online and off.

Quantities are limited. When it’s gone, it’s gone.
