The expanded collection brings a diverse range of vintage pieces—from classic denim and tailored jackets to elegant dresses and statement accessories—hand-selected to reflect both style and sustainability. By collaborating with Lost and Found, Provisions aims to create a destination where fashion lovers can discover unique, one-of-a-kind garments in an environment that celebrates craftsmanship, history, and community.

“This collaboration is about more than clothing,” said Peter MacGillivray, Owner of Provisions Williamstown. “It’s about storytelling, sustainability, and supporting the creative energy that’s thriving here in Williamstown. Lost and Found brings a thoughtful eye and community spirit that aligns perfectly with what we value.”

Your Neighbor Studio has long been known for its curated selections and commitment to repurposed, sustainable fashion. By partnering with Provisions Williamstown, they are expanding their reach to bring high-quality vintage pieces to a wider audience, creating a shared retail experience that reflects both brands’ identities.

“We’re thrilled to bring our vintage collection to such a beloved local space,” said Phil Sullivan, co-owner of Your Neighbor Studio. “Together, we’re creating a place where people can find pieces that feel personal, meaningful, and enduring.”

The expanded vintage line is now available in-store at Provisions Williamstown, located at 4 Water Street, and will be refreshed regularly with new finds.
