

CAMBRIDGE RESIDENTS TO HOLD 'NO KINGS IN CAMBRIDGE 2' PEACEFUL PROTEST OCT. 18 AS PART OF NATIONAL DAY OF ACTION

Local residents will gather Oct. 18 in Cambridge for a peaceful protest defending democracy as part of the national No Kings Day of Action.

CAMBRIDGE, MD, UNITED STATES, October 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- On Saturday, Oct. 18, community members will gather from noon to 2 p.m. at the corner of Maryland Avenue and U.S. Highway 50 for No Kings 2 in Cambridge, a peaceful demonstration organized by Cambridge Indivisible as part of the national No Kings Day of Peaceful Action.

We're standing where it matters most — right here in our own community — to say clearly that America has no kings. Democracy is not a spectator sport, and silence is not an option.”

Michelle Fowle, Co-Founder of Cambridge Indivisible

The event is one of thousands of nonviolent demonstrations nationwide, bringing together Americans who believe democracy belongs to the people — not to any one man. The Oct. 18 event builds on the June 14 mobilization, which drew millions across all 50 states to stand against authoritarianism and for democratic accountability.
