Oriental Artisan launches handcrafted Gaiwan tea cups. A symbol of Chinese culture, they're the perfect holiday/corporate gift to share art & ritual.

HONG KONG, October 12, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Oriental Artisan, a premier online purveyor of authentic Eastern craftsmanship, today announced the release of its exquisite new collection of Gaiwan Chinese tea cups. This series celebrates the profound artistry and history of traditional Chinese tea culture, offering customers not just a piece of teaware, but an heirloom-quality artifact perfect for elevated gifting.

The Gaiwan (meaning "covered bowl") is a revered three-part vessel—the lid, the bowl, and the saucer—fundamental to the art of Chinese tea preparation. Oriental Artisan's new collection comprises a diverse range of styles, each meticulously handmade by skilled artisans, ensuring every piece possesses a unique character and soul that machine-made products simply cannot replicate.

"The Gaiwan is more than a cup; it is a symbol of harmony, representing the trinity of Heaven (the lid), Humanity (the bowl), and Earth (the saucer)," said Mei Lin, Head Curator at Oriental Artisan. "Our new series is a tribute to this rich cultural heritage. We've partnered with masters who employ centuries-old techniques to create functional art pieces that bring mindful beauty to the daily ritual of tea."
