Backed by Trump-backed GOP Chair Michael McDonald and actress Dawn Olivieri, Bobby Khan leads a bold fight for reform, veterans, and Nevada's wild horses.

LAS VEGAS, NV, UNITED STATES, October 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Bobby Khan, once a celebrity exotic car dealer turned FBI fugitive, has exploded onto Nevada's political stage with a congressional campaign unlike anything the state has seen. With packed rallies, viral online traction, and a bold reform agenda, Khan is shaking up District 1 and redefining what it means to run for office in America.

Known for his blunt, fearless style, Khan's honesty—shaped by both triumphs and legal troubles—has struck a chord with Nevadans tired of politics as usual.

I've lived the highest highs and the lowest lows. That's why I fight—for the people who can't fight for themselves. No status quo. No excuses. Just truth and solutions.”

Khan has already drawn national attention. Yellowstone actress Dawn Olivieri has joined his mission to end the costly wild horse roundups, exposing how:

- Horses sold into the slaughter pipeline are being exploited for human and drug trafficking Source: https://bobbykhanforcongress.com/wp-content/uploads/2025/10/FILE_6685.pdf.
- With beef prices climbing, wild horse meat—at roughly $125 a horse versus $1,600 for cattle—is being illegally

mixed into beef sold to consumers

Backing him on the political front, Michael McDonald, Nevada GOP Chairman and the longest-serving party chair in the nation, has pledged full support, declaring Khan “the candidate who will fight for Nevada's people—and for America's horses."

Khan's campaign extends beyond the horse fight with a bold agenda:

- Zero taxes for veterans
- End civil asset forfeiture without conviction
- Bring manufacturing back to America
- Zero taxes on gambling winnings
- Justice and prison reform

What began as a long shot is quickly becoming a movement. His rallies draw Republicans, Democrats, and independents alike.

"I've lived the highest highs and the lowest lows. That's why I fight—for the people who can't fight for themselves. No status quo. No excuses. Just truth and solutions." — Bobby Khan

With celebrity backing, party support, and a rapidly growing base, Bobby Khan is emerging as a frontrunner in Nevada's District 1 race.
