

Tom Silver Foundation Launches 'Operation Pain Relief' to Bring Free Hypnotherapy Event for Veterans in Las Vegas Valley

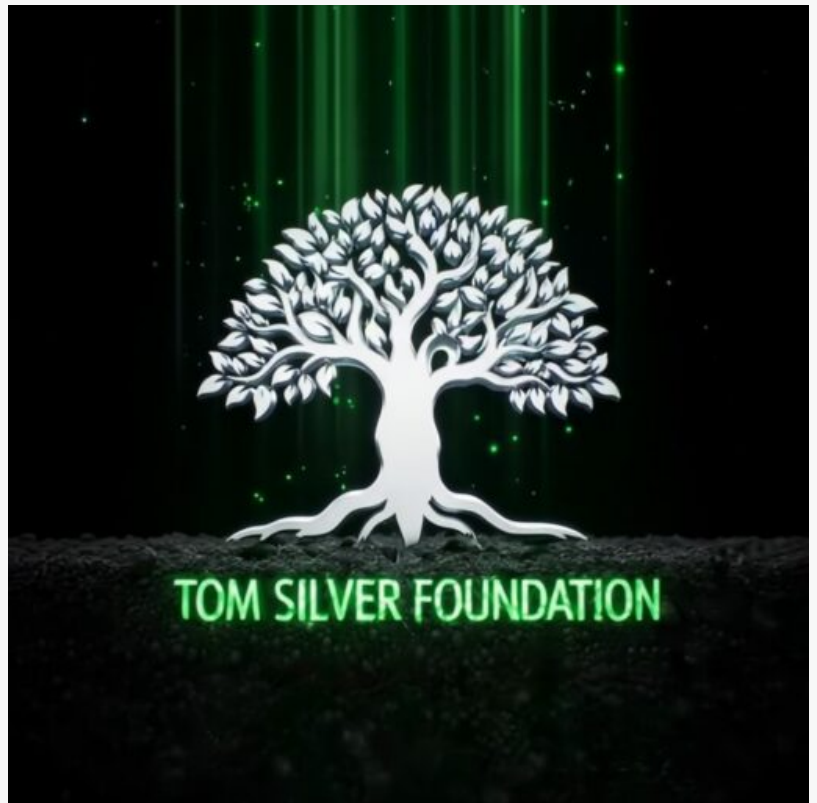

This non-profit organization focuses on bringing innovative psychotherapy techniques to underserved communities with an upcoming event for veterans.

HENDERSON, NV, UNITED STATES, October 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Tom Silver Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to expanding access to mental-wellness and therapeutic programs, has launched Operation Pain Relief, a fundraising campaign to raise $5,000 by October 31st in support of a free pain-management and hypnotherapy event for veterans in the Las Vegas Valley.

The upcoming event, hosted by Findlay Honda Henderson, will be led by well-respected hypnotherapist Tommy Giorlando, Director of Hypnotherapy Programs for the Tom Silver Foundation. Giorlando was personally trained and certified by the late Tom Silver, a world-renowned pioneer in scientific hypnotherapy, and has since become an expert in pain management and subconscious healing.

"Part of our mission is to provide mental health therapy to underserved communities, and I firmly believe our veterans deserve much more than they are given. Managing pain is the first step in providing that support," said Mariah Fox, founder of the Tom Silver Foundation and daughter of Tom Silver. "This event continues my father's life's work using the power of the mind to relieve pain, reduce stress, and restore quality of life. Every donation directly supports veterans and makes this healing event possible."
