Sofema Online Celebrates a Record September: 4,400+ New Enrolments in EASA-Compliant Regulatory Training.

SOFIA, BULGARIA, October 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Sofema Online reports significant growth in September 2025, with over 4,400 new student enrolments across its portfolio of EASA-compliant regulatory and vocational training courses. This development reflects the ongoing trust and demand from the aviation sector for Sofema's comprehensive training offerings, which serve operators, MROs, CAMOs, airports, OEMs, and regulatory authorities.

Sofema Online Celebrates a Record September.

Steve Bentley, CEO of Sofema, commented, "This outcome demonstrates that our approach to training, focused on practical relevance and alignment with current regulatory standards, is resonating with the industry. We anticipate over 40,000 enrolments in 2025, confirming Sofema Online's role as a leading provider of EASA-compliant regulatory training. Organisations and individuals continue to see the value in training that is practical, up-to-date, and accessible."

No Commitment Trial for New Clients

Sofema Online invites both individual professionals and organisations to evaluate its training offerings with no initial commitment. A Corporate Guest Access (FOC) programme is available, designed to help organisations assess the quality and fit of Sofema's courses at no cost.

Who Qualifies:

Aviation-related organisations such as operators, AMOs/MROs, CAMOs, DOAs/POAs, airports/ground handlers, training organisations, and authorities are eligible. Requests must be made from a verified corporate email domain.

How to Access:

To activate Guest Access, organisations can email team@sofemaonline.com with the subject line "Corporate Guest Access – FOC," providing their organisation name, role, and evaluator's email address. Access will be activated within one business day.

SOL Plus Membership Benefits

For individuals, Sofema Online offers SOL Plus members access to five introductory courses free of charge. The following courses are available to members at no cost:

EASA Quality Assurance Auditing Introduction with VO

(EU) Regulation 965/2012 Introduction with VO
