With clearing institutions ensuring fund security, the Navigator enhancing trading efficiency, and cross-broker matching building a transparent ecosystem.

SINGAPORE, SINGAPORE, SINGAPORE, October 13, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- A Letter to the Market — Finger Trader's Commitment to the Financial Ecosystem

———— Finger Trader

Singapore, Singapore — For Immediate Release.

In the world of finance, trust is the most expensive cost.

At Finger, we choose structure and functionality over hollow slogans.

Finger

In the past, market trust was often built on brands and advertising.

The perceived safety of a broker often depended on fame and marketing, rather than real financial and institutional safeguards.

This has caused companies truly devoted to technology and transparency to be drowned out by the noise.

Among them are licensed securities institutions with VA permits, integrating through technical partnerships.

This network will expand coverage to more markets, providing consistent safety structures for brokers worldwide.

It will act as an intelligent assistant in the trading process.

Users will not only rely on quotes and charts but also receive strategic suggestions and behavioral analysis.

This transforms trading ability into a truly augmentable skill.

We believe the market does not need more competitors — it needs a fair, transparent, and sustainable environment.

Every feature in Finger is designed around this core belief.

When brokers can connect across systems, and all participants rely on structure rather than reputation,
