Isah Velita

About Isah Velita:

Isah Velita is a dedicated advocate for healthcare reform, focusing on improving organizational systems and addressing broader U.S. healthcare challenges. Her work is driven by a personal health journey that revealed critical flaws in traditional medical approaches, leading her to embrace holistic and functional medicine alternatives.

Isah has raised awareness of systemic issues such as the prevalence of chronic illness, the mental health crisis among healthcare professionals, and the often-prohibitive costs of alternative treatments. Through successful grassroots advocacy, she has influenced policy changes and is considering establishing a nonprofit organization to support healthcare reform efforts.

Her mission is to challenge outdated healthcare models and promote innovative, patient-centered solutions that ensure better outcomes and greater accessibility for all.
