

CrowdCoursing Opens Free Access for Title I Schools Nationwide in 2025–2026

New initiative offers no-cost platform access to all Title I schools, driving nationwide community and student engagement.

ORLANDO, FL, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- CrowdCoursing, a pioneering education-focused volunteer and event management platform, today announced it will provide no-cost access to its platform for all Title I schools nationwide for the entire 2025–2026 school year. The initiative is designed to supercharge community engagement, reduce administrative burdens, and expand equitable learning support for students in high-poverty schools.

With CrowdCoursing, we have been able to quantify and manage over half a million dollars of volunteer time.”

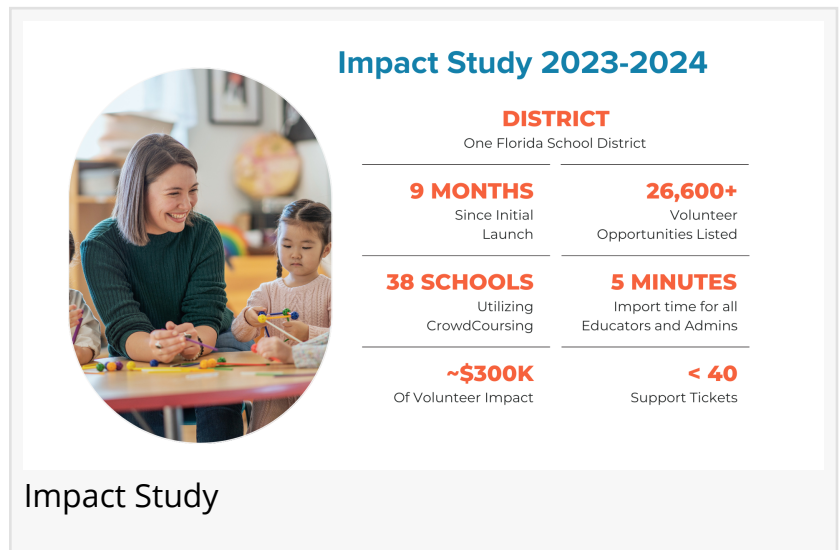

Kelley Kostamo, Alachua County Supervisor of Volunteers and Partners

Title I, Part A of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act directs federal support to schools with high percentages of children from low-income families, helping all students meet challenging state academic standards. By removing platform costs, CrowdCoursing will help Title I schools create and manage educational events, volunteer opportunities, and family engagement initiatives in ways that are simple, safe, and impactful.

Why this matters for Title I communities:

For Students:

- More consistent access to tutors, mentors, and career speakers—including remote options—to close learning gaps and build college-and-career readiness.
- Inclusive volunteer pools (parents, caregivers, community members, and college students) aligned with student interests and needs.

- Supports 80+ languages, ensuring equitable access for English Learners and multilingual families.

For Educators & Staff:

- Onboards all educators and principals in under 5 minutes, making implementation fast and frictionless.
- Provides real-time analytics and detailed insights to inform decision-making and demonstrate impact.
- Streamlines the creation and management of sessions, reduces paperwork, and enables proactive people management.
- Built-in background checks and 2-factor authentication ensure safety and compliance.

For Families & Community Volunteers:

- Seamless and centralized access to essential links and tools via an integrated resource hub.
- Easy-to-use interface to discover, register, and participate in opportunities that support classrooms, school culture, and student success.
- Enhances community engagement and brings families closer to the education process.

How the free access works

- Eligibility: All U.S. Title I schools (schoolwide or targeted-assistance).
- Term: 2025–2026 academic year.
- Activation: Schools and districts can visit crowdcoursing.com to request onboarding for the Title I access program; CrowdCoursing's responsive support team will guide setup and best practices.
- Training & Demos: "No-strings-attached" live demos are available for any district or school team that wants to see the platform in action before onboarding.

Leadership comments

"Every student deserves a strong learning community—regardless of ZIP code. By opening CrowdCoursing to every Title I school at no cost, we're making it easier for educators to mobilize mentors, family volunteers, and local partners—online or on campus—to support achievement, belonging, and future-ready skills," said a Ishan Kurkari, Co-Founder and CEO of CrowdCoursing.
