

Reimagining the Future of Corporate Travel in Saudi Arabia: WegoPro Leads the Conversation

RIYADH, SAUDI ARABIA, October 14, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With Vision 2030 at the forefront, the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia is creating endless opportunities for leaders, and innovators to connect in person, strengthen relationships, and drive growth.

As the nation transforms into a global business hub, corporate travel will play a crucial role in fostering meaningful connections. To support this vision, it is imperative that business travel planning and management be easier, and more efficient than ever. Moving a step ahead in redefining the future of corporate travel across the Kingdom and beyond, WegoPro - A Corporate Travel and Expense Management platform hosted an invite-only round-table conference for forward-thinking CHROs and people leaders at the Fairmont Riyadh on 2nd October, 2025.

The event brought together some of the most impactful voices in HR, travel management, and digital transformation across the region.

The WegoPro team - Dipesh Pal (Head of Sales, Middle East), Zuher Kahveci (Regional Business Development Manager), and Abdulmajid

Al-Anazi (Regional Partnerships Manager), shared valuable insights on how businesses can achieve the perfect balance between operational efficiency, cost savings, and employee well-being.

“Our mission has always been to help businesses drive excellent travel experiences, and zero headaches of cost control and poor expense management,” said the WegoPro team. “Saudi Arabia is emerging as one of the world’s most exciting destinations for business travel, and we’re proud to be part of shaping how companies move, connect, and grow in this new era.”

The discussion at Fairmont Riyadh underscored that travel is no longer an expense - it’s an investment in relationships, culture, and opportunity.
