

New Covenant Church Preschool Earns 'Excellent' Rating in Florida's VPK Accountability System

NCP Ranked Among the Top 12% of VPK Programs in Seminole County, Florida

WINTER SPRINGS, FL, UNITED STATES, October 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- New Covenant Preschool (NCP) has received an Excellent rating in the Florida Department of Education's Voluntary Prekindergarten Education Program (VPK) performance designations for the 2024–2025 school year. This distinction places the preschool among the top 12% of 170 VPK providers in Seminole County, with only 22 schools achieving this elite status.

NCP earned an impressive 70 points, ranking within the top 4.7% of schools that scored 70 or higher. The new accountability system, introduced this year by the Florida Department of Education, evaluates schools based on three key performance metrics:

- Program quality (50%)
- Student achievement (20%)
- Student learning gains (30%)

"Our focus on setting clear boundaries, instilling high expectations, and teaching mutual respect lays the foundation for strong academics and a lifelong love of learning," said Robyn Brant, Director of New Covenant Church Preschool. "We combine structure with warmth and creativity, ensuring each child feels valued while gaining the skills they need to thrive in kindergarten and beyond.”

The preschool’s commitment to excellence is further demonstrated through its small class sizes, maintaining a teacher-to-student ratio of one teacher for every eight students, one of the lowest in Seminole County. This personalized approach ensures every child receives individualized attention and care, fostering both confidence and curiosity.
