solutions for bid and vendor management. This strategic shift moves the City away from a cumbersome, manual process previously managed through the City website, an outdated bid aggregation website, and newspaper advertisements.

Cypress sought a more streamlined, centralized approach to procurement to reduce administrative burden and improve vendor access. With PlanetBids, the City now has the tools to broadcast opportunities, facilitate electronic and compliant bid submissions, and expand its reach to a broader network of qualified vendors.

Key Benefits for Cypress Include:

- Centralized Digital Platform: Consolidates bid posting, vendor outreach, and public works e-bidding into a single interface, reducing complexity and eliminating redundant steps.
- Expanded Vendor Access: PlanetBids offers targeted vendor notifications and access to a nationwide vendor community to drive competition and improve pricing.
- Efficient Public Works Bidding: The Advanced eBidding for Public Works solution supports compliance with state regulations while simplifying submission, review, and evaluation workflows.
- Reduced Administrative Burden: Staff can save time by eliminating manual tracking and communications previously handled internally and through email chains.

“We’re proud to support the City of Cypress as they move away from fragmented, manual processes,” said Dave DiGiacomo, CEO of PlanetBids. “With our public works e-bidding tools and powerful vendor management capabilities, Cypress is now equipped to manage procurement more efficiently and transparently.”

Vendors interested in working with the City of Cypress can register for free and access bid opportunities at the City's vendor portal.
