

Allocore Awarded Department of Defense Office of Strategic Capital Direct-to-Phase II SBIR Contract

Award will accelerate development of critical defense technology by implementing Allocore's modern, traceable, and commercially proven Unified Lending Platform

ARLINGTON, VA, UNITED STATES,
October 15, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ --

Allocore announces it has been selected by AFWERX for a SBIR Direct-to-Phase II contract focused on Allocore's Unified Lending Platform product to address the most pressing challenges in the Department of the Air Force (DAF). The Air Force Research Laboratory and AFWERX have partnered to streamline the Small Business Innovation Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) process by accelerating the small business experience through faster proposal to award timelines, changing the pool of potential applicants by expanding opportunities to small business and eliminating bureaucratic overhead by continually implementing process improvement changes in contract execution. The DAF began offering the Open Topic SBIR/STTR program in 2018 which expanded the range of innovations the DAF funded and now on June 23, 2025, Allocore will start its journey to create and provide innovative capabilities that will strengthen the national defense of the United States of America.

"We're honored to partner with AFWERX and OSC to deliver the next generation of federal lending technology. At Allocore, we believe secure, scalable financial infrastructure is critical not just for economic growth—but for national security. This award marks a powerful step toward modernizing how the government delivers resources at speed and scale." - Bill Webner, Allocore CEO
