at Walden Circle*

Located at 1907 Lakeshore Rd. West, Walden Circle provides a supportive and dynamic environment for retirees. Attendees of the Fall Open House will be treated to live entertainment and have the chance to win an exciting door prize. A highlight of the afternoon will be the opportunity to indulge in Chef Bertie's delicious desserts, showcasing the high-quality culinary experience residents enjoy daily.

During the event, guests are invited to take guided tours of the residence, exploring the beautifully designed suites and common areas. Staff will be on hand to discuss the various lifestyle options and care services available, all tailored to meet the individual needs of each resident. This event is an ideal setting for those considering a move to a retirement community to ask questions, meet current residents, and get a true sense of the community spirit at Walden Circle.

"Our Fall Open House is the perfect, relaxed way for families to discover the warmth and vibrancy of our community," said Amilia, Community Relations Manager at Walden Circle. "We're excited to showcase our beautiful home and treat our guests to Chef Bertie's amazing desserts."

Walden Circle Retirement Community is committed to providing an enriching and fulfilling lifestyle for seniors, with a focus on wellness, social connection, and personalized care.
