

Purpose Healing Center in Scottsdale Announces its Accessible AHCCCS Rehab Coverage and In-Network Insurance Acceptance

Purpose Healing Center in Scottsdale proudly accepts AHCCCS insurance and is in-network for most private insurance carriers to offer accessible care in Arizona.

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, UNITED STATES, October 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Purpose Healing Center, one of Arizona's premier addiction and mental health treatment providers, is proud to announce its acceptance of AHCCCS and most major insurance plans in-network. This expansion marks a significant milestone in the center's mission to make high-quality recovery care accessible to all who seek help.

Purpose Healing Center offers accredited detox and rehab programs that are committed to accessibility for Arizona residents in need of support

By becoming an in-network provider for AHCCCS, the Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System, Purpose Healing Center removes one of the most common barriers to treatment: the cost. This step ensures that individuals covered by Medicaid in Arizona can now access the facility's full continuum of care, including medical detox, residential treatment, and outpatient programs, without the burden of high out-of-pocket expenses.

Our mission has always been to help people find healing and purpose through compassionate, evidence-based care”

In addition to AHCCCS, Purpose Healing Center is also now in-network with MercyCare and other AHCCCS sub-types, as well as most major private insurance providers. This means individuals with commercial health coverage can more easily utilize their benefits for addiction and mental health treatment services.

“Our mission has always been to help people find healing and purpose through compassionate, evidence-based care,” said a spokesperson for Purpose Healing Center. “By accepting AHCCCS and expanding our in-network partnerships, we’re ensuring that more people, regardless of their insurance plan, can begin their recovery journey with confidence and support.”

Working with insurance providers like AZ Complete Health allows the Scottsdale center to streamline admissions, reduce financial strain, and provide transparent cost-of-care information from the start.

Purpose Healing Center offers a complete continuum of care, including detox, residential treatment, partial hospitalization (PHP), and intensive outpatient programs (IOP). Each treatment plan is tailored to the individual’s unique needs, combining clinical therapies, holistic approaches, and ongoing support to facilitate long-term recovery.

Located in Scottsdale, the facility provides a safe, restorative environment that promotes healing on every level, physical, emotional, and spiritual. Its team of licensed clinicians, therapists, and recovery specialists works together to create an atmosphere where transformation is not only possible but sustainable.

For people and families seeking help, Purpose Healing Center’s admissions team offers free insurance verification and guidance through every step of the enrollment process. By expanding its insurance network and accepting AHCCCS, Purpose Healing Center continues to remove barriers to care and strengthen its commitment to serving the Arizona community.
