

Nobis Rehabilitation Partners Announces Top Performers at Annual CEO Conference

ALLEN, TX, UNITED STATES, October 21, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Nobis Rehabilitation Partners held its annual CEO Conference on October 7th-8th in Allen, TX. The conference had a robust agenda, featuring guest speakers from The Center for Improvement in Healthcare Quality (CIHQ), Huron Consulting Group, Innovative IRF Coding, and Southwestern Health Resources, as well as presentations on operational excellence and tools, hospital best practices, and people management optimization resources. The conference concluded with the Annual Awards Ceremony, recognizing the Nobis top-performing hospitals based on metrics achieved over the past year.

"The third CEO Conference marked a pivotal year of performance and growth across the Nobis hospital portfolio, with 6 of our hospitals achieving the Center of Excellence in both Rehabilitation Services and Stroke Care by the Center for Improvement in Healthcare Quality (CIHQ)," said Chester Crouch, CEO and Founder. "Our hospitals have delivered exceptional performance this year, and we're particularly proud of those leading the way in performance."

Our hospitals have delivered exceptional performance this year, and we're particularly proud of those leading the way in performance"

Chester Crouch, Founder and Chief Executive Officer

The Nobis hospitals recognized for their exceptional performance were:

- * Orlando Rehabilitation Hospital received the Community Service Award.
