

Central Valley Drywall Experts Offer Emergency Water Damage Repairs Ahead of Rainy Season

Custom Drywall Service expands water damage repair services across Fresno, Clovis, Visalia, and surrounding cities — with emergency scheduling available.

FRESNO, CA, UNITED STATES, October 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- As rainy season returns to California's Central Valley, Custom Drywall Service (CDS) is stepping up to help homeowners across Fresno, Clovis, Madera, Hanford, Visalia, and Kingsburg repair water-damaged drywall caused by roof leaks, plumbing failures, and storm damage.

"Most people assume Custom Drywall Service only handles large residential installs," says Matt Ploy, owner of CDS. "But the reality is we handle dozens of water damage repairs every week — from small patches to full ceiling replacements. Homeowners need a team that's licensed, responsive, and knows how to work with insurance. That's us."

CDS is seeing a seasonal uptick in calls for issues like leaking roofs, pipe bursts, ceiling stains, and sagging popcorn texture — all warning signs that drywall may be compromised. If not addressed quickly, water damage can lead to mold, insulation rot, and recurring structural problems.

Many homeowners use this opportunity to upgrade from outdated popcorn ceilings. "We're one of the few crews in the region that not only repairs water-damaged popcorn ceilings, but can also match texture or fully remove and resurface the ceiling at the same time," says Ploy. "It's something most drywall companies won't even touch."

CDS has provided licensed drywall services to Central California for over 50 years. While the company is known for high-end custom home installs, its repair division has become a trusted choice for emergency water damage repairs — blending speed, quality, and expertise. "We're not the cheapest, and we don't pretend to be," Ploy adds. "We're professionals. Our team shows up, knows what to do, and doesn't waste your time — especially for families juggling school runs and daily life."
