

Electe Wins Le Fonti Awards 2025 for Excellence of the Year – Innovation & Leadership in AI Solutions

Milan-based AI company recognized for transforming SME data analytics; newsletter surpasses 15,000 verified subscribers; expanding to 20 languages.

MILAN, MI, ITALY, October 17, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Electe, the innovative AI-powered data analytics platform dedicated to small and medium-sized enterprises, has been honored with the prestigious "Excellence of the Year – Innovation & Leadership in AI Solutions" award at the XV edition of Le Fonti Awards 2025. The ceremony took place on October 9, 2025, at Palazzo Mezzanotte in Piazza Affari, Milan's financial heart.

The Le Fonti Awards represent one of Europe's most distinguished business recognition ceremonies, celebrating corporate excellence across innovation, leadership, and technological achievement. With a certified global business community of over 10.5 million professionals spanning more than 125 countries, Le Fonti Awards events take place in major financial centers including Milan, New York, Hong Kong, Dubai, Singapore, and London.

Founded in 2023 by CEO Fabio Lauria, Electe has rapidly established itself as a transformative force in artificial intelligence solutions for businesses. The platform democratizes access to advanced data analytics, enabling organizations of all sizes to convert complex data into strategic decisions through predictive analytics, automated reports, and real-time insights.

The recognition comes at a pivotal moment for Electe, which has achieved remarkable milestones demonstrating its market impact and growing influence. The company's newsletter has surpassed 15,000 verified subscribers, establishing one of the most engaged professional communities in the AI analytics space. This achievement reflects the industry's strong appetite for accessible, practical insights on implementing artificial intelligence in business operations.

In a significant strategic expansion, Electe is extending its website accessibility by adding 10 additional languages to its existing 10-language offering, bringing the total to 20 languages, reinforcing its commitment to breaking down barriers to AI adoption across diverse markets and linguistic regions. This multilingual expansion positions Electe to serve an increasingly global clientele seeking sophisticated data analytics solutions.

“

This recognition validates our mission to democratize artificial intelligence for businesses of all sizes. We're committed to transforming how SMEs leverage data to drive growth and innovation.”

Fabio Lauria

Beyond software innovation, Electe is expanding its intellectual property portfolio with a patent application for a novel device technology currently under development.

Electe's platform has demonstrated measurable business impact, achieving an 87 percent reduction in data processing time for clients and experiencing a 278 percent increase in platform views within the first year of operation. These metrics underscore the platform's effectiveness in addressing real business challenges while maintaining user-friendly accessibility.

Electe receives the 'Excellence of the Year – Innovation & Leadership in AI Solutions' award at the XV edition of Le Fonti Awards 2025, held at Palazzo Mezzanotte, headquarters of the Italian Stock Exchange in Milan, October 9, 2025.

The company's innovative approach has earned multiple recognitions beyond Le Fonti Awards. In November 2024, Electe received the "AI Innovation of the Year" award at the Netty Awards. In April 2025, Electe joined the World Wide Web Consortium as a member, positioning the company to influence data interoperability and privacy standards for small and medium-sized enterprises globally.

Winners of Le Fonti Awards are selected through a rigorous evaluation process conducted by the Le Fonti Editorial Board and Scientific Committee, supported by comprehensive industry research. The recognition validates Electe's technological innovation, market impact, and leadership in making artificial intelligence accessible to businesses traditionally underserved by enterprise-level solutions.

The award ceremony, presented by Valentina Buzzi, Anchor of Le Fonti, was preceded by the CEO Summit focused on "INTELLIGENZA GREEN: le best practices aziendali per creare valore" (Green Intelligence: Corporate Best Practices for Value Creation), emphasizing the intersection of technology and sustainability in modern business.

Electe's headquarters are located at Via Monte Napoleone, 8 in Milan, positioning the company at the center of Italy's business and fashion capital while serving clients across multiple sectors including retail, manufacturing, healthcare, and professional services.
