Williamstown Photographer Publishes Online Showcase

WILLIAMSTOWN, MA, UNITED STATES, October 16, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Peter MacGillivray Launches Online Photography Exhibit Celebrating a Lifetime Behind the Lens

Williamstown Artist Brings His Work to Global Audiences Through a New Digital Platform

Acclaimed photographer and Williamstown resident Peter

MacGillivray is proud to announce the launch of his first online photography exhibition, a curated digital showcase highlighting decades of creative work. Blending local storytelling with a global artistic vision, the exhibition invites both regional audiences and photography enthusiasts worldwide to experience MacGillivray's striking visual narratives.

Williamstown is the launchpad of my creative journey.”

Peter MacGillivray

MacGillivray's career spans from early editorial photography published in major national outlets to more recent explorations in fine art, landscape, and documentary work. This online gallery brings together these diverse threads, featuring intimate New England scenes, evocative portraits, and photographs from his travels that reveal his keen eye for composition and human connection.

“Williamstown has always inspired my work — from its landscapes to its people,” said Peter MacGillivray. “Launching this online exhibition allows me to share those inspirations with both my community and a wider audience. Each photograph tells a story, and I’m excited for people to explore those stories on their own terms.”

The exhibition is now live at www.petermacgillivray.com, where visitors can explore themed galleries, read the stories behind selected images, and purchase limited-edition prints. The platform is designed to be accessible, offering a gallery-quality experience that’s available 24/7 to
