

Coast to Coast Network of Compass Wraps Up Inspiring Annual Retreat in Nantucket

The Coast to Coast Network at Compass enjoyed time on Nantucket collaborating and learning from one another on their annual retreat.

NANTUCKET, MA, UNITED STATES, October 22, 2025 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Coast to Coast Network of Compass, a premier collective of seasoned luxury real estate advisors at Compass representing over 80 markets across the United States, recently concluded its annual retreat on the idyllic shores of Nantucket Island.

The annual retreat for the Coast to Coast Network serves as a time for collaboration, education, and rejuvenation among top-producing agents within Compass. Hosted at the beautiful Nantucket estate of Peter

McHugh, friend of Angela Swift, network partner for Greenwich, Connecticut, the retreat brought together advisors from across the country for a four-day experience centered around connection and growth. "Bonding, sharing and lifting each other up both personally and professionally is a priceless experience" said Swift.

"What makes Compass so special is not only the technology, our leadership and marketing, it is the people. The friendships, and the commitment of excellence across our network elevates how we all serve our clients."

One of the highlights of the weekend included a serene yoga session on the deck, led by Erin Chadwick of the Santa Barbara market, offering attendees a moment to reset and reflect amid a demanding industry followed by a wonderful brunch hosted by Joan and Jessica Witter representing the Cape Cod market for the group. Attendees also enjoyed a friendly and energetic pickleball tournament hosted by Peter Colbert and Monica Lussier from the Wine Country and

Santa Cruz markets.

"After a week on Nantucket with my fellow Coast to Coasters at Compass, I was reminded continuously how special the relationships are that bond us in Real Estate. Not only are these colleagues top agents and collaborators, they are my close friends that I would hang out with every day because we just have fun together." Peter Colbert, Wine Country Colbert Group.

In addition to structured events, Coast to Coast Network partners took time to explore the natural beauty of

Nantucket—biking along scenic trails, enjoying sunset happy hours, taking peaceful walks to historic lighthouses, and of course, indulging in the island's renowned food and shopping scenes. The event featured workshops, networking dinners, and moments of intentional reflection

The power of this network lies not just in our shared success but in our shared vision of creating the most seamless and elevated experience for our clients for all of their real estate needs.”
